

Please Please Please whatever you do, do not overturn this law. I have young children, the telemarketers call at all hours, especially while I'm doing homework, cooking dinner, getting the kids ready for school, it seems that at every inopportune moment my phone rings with a telemarketer. I am currently on the Govt Do Not Call List and I still get solicitors calling. The best part is when you tell them not to call or that you're on the Do Not Call List, they get nasty with you. I've had enough, I do not want telemarketers calling my house period!!!!!!

Sincerely
Tom and Rosemary Chetney
